

Spinelli Archive, Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Yale University – Bills of exchange traded by Italian firm in the mid-sixteenth century -

Jews, Credit and Usury in medieval and early modern times: What's new in the field?

Thursday, May 23, 2019

9h30 Opening

François Bon (CRFJ/Toulouse University)
Evelyne Oliel-Grausz (University Paris 1
Panthéon Sorbonne/ CRFJ/IIAS)

9h45-10h30

Pinchas Roth (Bar Ilan University):
Usury, Trickery and Philology: Responsa and Pseudo-Responsa by Isaac of Dampierre

10h30-11h15

Pierre Savy (Ecole française de Rome), Judith Kogel (Irh, Centre national de la recherche scientifique): Credit and usury, Christians and Jews : the views of Meir ben Simeon of Narbonne (c. 1250-1270)

11h15-11h30 Coffee break

11h30-12h15

Kenneth Stow, (Emeritus Professor of Jewish History at the University of Haifa): *Meir b
Simeon, the pope, and credit: Doth usury a ghetto make?*

12h15-13h15 Lunch break

13h15-14h15

Francesca Trivellato, (Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton): *Jewish
Usury: Medieval and Early Modern Declensions*

14h15-15h00

Edward Fram (IIAS / Ben Gurion University):
Disputed contracts. Roman vs. Jewish Law in early modern non-Jewish legal forums

15h00-16h00

Evelyne Oliel-Grausz (University Paris
1/CRFJ/IIAS)
*'Cas van ribit' Forbidden interest in court:
the Montel case between Surinam and Amsterdam (1752-64)*

16h00-16h45

Jessica Maya Marglin (University of Southern California) Jews, Credit, and Usury in 19th-Century Morocco: Between Shari'a and Custom

16h45 Conclusion

Workshop venue: CRFJ, 3 Shimshon St., Jerusalem – Open to the public

המכון הישראלי ללימודים מתקדמים
Israel Institute for Advanced Studies

Centre de Recherche Français à Jérusalem

MEAE - CNRS - Umifre 7 - USR 3132

